THE PERIODICAL KEY PROVIDES

help in making the best use of these excellent magazines

A careful look at this issue will show how it helps make better use of magazines now available to you.

IT'S

WORTH A LITTLE MONEY TO SAVE A LOT OF TIME!!

OUR BEGINNINGS

Several years ago in a Sunday school class the teacher suggested that "In the beginning . . . " had more significance to the Christian than mere reference to the origin of the world or even the universe, but that it meant God must be in the beginning of everything we do. Certainly for one small Methodist with limited experience and even more limited finances, living in a compact student housing project with her husband, a 5-year-old girl and a 3-year-old boy to undertake a project of the immensity of THE PERIODICAL KEY would seem to be utterly foolhardy.

Seem to be? It would be, except for one thing—the assurance that God was guiding.

The very first idea was born of the frustration of a busy Methodist woman who could not possibly read all the periodicals in which she knew there was helpful material for her particular church responsibilities. A reader's guide to Methodist magazines would surely answer the problem. She believed it was a good enough idea that one day when she had time she would write to someone on the Board of Education in Nashville and suggest it.

But, the second thought in "the KEY chain" came months later, in different surroundings, and with such startling suddenness it was as though it came through her mind, not from it—"You could do that!" It was true that she had spent a childhood in the parsonage of one of the best ministers from whom to lears Methodism and she had a background which combined experience as a file clerk, a librarian and a religious education worker. These were ngredients which would help.

Then began a period of testing the idea and developing it through study of other indexing projects and conversation with many Methodist from all parts of the country in which needs of various church workers were analyzed to see how best the index would answer the needs of each one. Investigation of printing methods and costs, obtaining financial backing, getting all the magazines to be indexed, planning some publicity of the project and deciding just what method should be used to introduce it to Methodists—all these problems took a good many hours for solution.

All the way through these planning stages, ideas occurred again and again in this same manner, as though coming through rather than from her. Obstacles of all sorts reared their ugly heads yet in the midst of the most hopeless feeling, even while marveling at it herself, this Methodist woman kept right on plugging toward the goal, wondering why she didn't give up.

When help was needed along the way someone was always there to answer the need—for suggestions, for financial support, for a baby sitter during stages of the project which necessitated being away, for free labor in getting out that first great mailing of 5,000 free copies. Countless times when progress seemed to be permanently stopped, the situation was saved by an interested and creatively thoughtful husband.

And now THE PERIODICAL KEY is a reality. The test of its value will be in the number of subscribers it attracts and in the subscribers' reactions. If it serves its users well a dream has been realized.

TREASURE HUNT

Once there was a young man who purchased from a highly skilled locksmith a key which was said to fit the lock to a room filled with fabulous treasure. The young man felt he had made a great find but he never quite got around to seeing just how the key fit into the lock and so, through the years, the treasure lay untouched and the young man survived in moderate wealth—enough, that is, for the essentials—but never seemed to have enough to make life a real joy.

The treasures, from the standpoint of personal living and church administrative help, found in our Methodist periodicals are fabulous and you are holding in your hand the Key which will make them truly your own. However, this Key must be used to be effective. It is at this point of use that we Methodists fall down in relation to all our fine church literature. We haven't the time to read all this material and looking through it at random to find what we particularly need is also too time consuming so, we leave the treasure untouched.

Our PERIODICAL KEY is an effort to index all these other magazines to make possible finding just what you want quickly. Through a careful look at the various headings found here you will quickly become aware of those sections which hold answers for you in whatever church position you may be. Watch these sections regularly and they will direct you straight to the very articles you will find most helpful.

Month after month of this kind of careful, directed reading will bring results in personal confidence, deepened spiritual life and more efficient execution of your church duties. Oh, yes, and a lot more fun in the process.
